UniMoney signs Memorandum with PT. Bank Syariah Mandiri

On the 7th October, UniMoney (HK) Network Technology Limited (UniMoney) and PT. Bank Syariah Mandiri (BSM) signed a cooperation agreement in Jakarta, Indonesia to further expand UniMoney's coverage and point of presence in Indonesia, the world's fourth-most populous country. Henry Ng, CEO of UniMoney, Goh Kai Yee, SVP of UniMoney, Lai Chung Ming, CFO of Unimoney, Sugiharto, MD of BSM, Hanawijaya, MD of BSM and other officials were present at the signing ceremony.

Hanawijaya, MD of BSM said: "We, Bank Syariah Mandiri, are very serious in this remittance business. There is already a group handling this business at the Vice President level."

Henry Ng, CEO of UniMoney said: "I would like to first recognize the strength of Bank Syariah Mandiri in Indonesia over the years. I truly appreciate this partnership as we all work towards our common goal – to improve remittance flows between Indonesia and China. We genuinely want to make this business a success and be a money remittance leader in Asia."

This partnership between UniMoney and BSM will allow both companies to facilitate Indonesian and Chinese migrant workers, expatriates, and businesses in transferring money via a highly secured and reliable payment platform. UniMoney will also be able to take full advantage of BSM's 800+ locations in Indonesia for cash-pickup as well as sending money.
